A WELCOME FROM THE PRESIDENT

There is perhaps no more fitting preamble to this year's Annual Meeting and Conference in our nation's capital than the familiar words on the Great Seal of the United States: E pluribus unum—"Out of many, one." It is in that spirit that we—colleagues and friends representing NCARB and the 54 jurisdictions—gather together to review progress and take that next step into the future of the regulation of our profession.

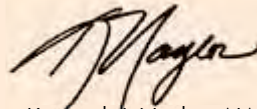

The NCARB Annual Meeting is an important three-day event where Member Boards hear updates on the Council's programs and finances, vote on resolutions, elect new leaders, and learn about what is planned for the future. It is your opportunity to become informed and discuss the issues that are vital to the Council's mission and your board's operations. Your attendance makes the meeting an effective forum to conduct the business that strengthens regulation.

It has been a busy year! Highlights include consideration of NCARB's role in continuing education, the push forward to develop and achieve our strategic goals, implementing a greater leadership role for the IDP Coordinators program, and selection of the next chief executive officer. You won't want to miss hearing updates on these and other developments.

The gathering is also a valuable opportunity to meet with Member Board Members and Member Board Executives from other jurisdictions and leaders of our collateral organizations. While each jurisdiction is different, we all face common issues and concerns. The Annual Meeting & Conference offers the chance to exchange ideas and work together for the betterment of the regulation of our profession.

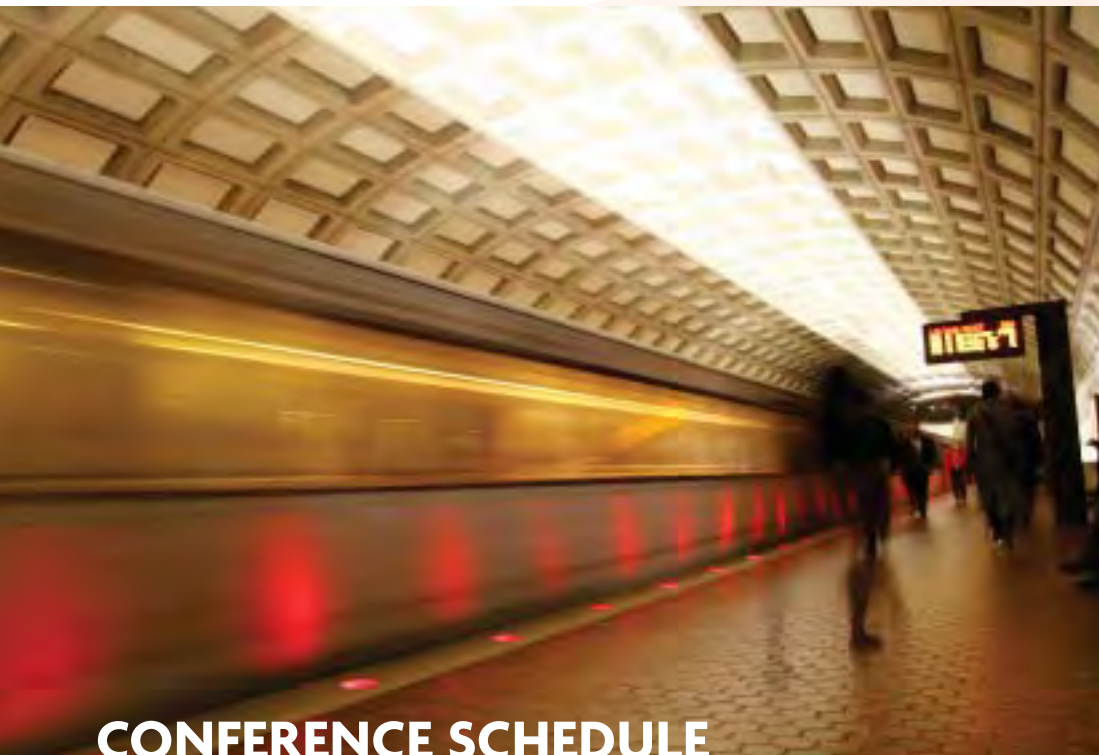

DC impresses everyone who visits. Its architecture, buildings, memorials, and public spaces are some of the most recognized images in the world. Between business sessions and workshops, you will have the opportunity to see national gems such as the Washington Monument, the U.S. Capitol, the Jefferson Memorial, the Washington Cathedral, and many others. In fact, the White House is located just blocks from our home base, the JW Marriott Hotel.

All in all, the NCARB Annual Meeting is one gathering that you won't want to miss. I look forward to welcoming you in June!

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES

WEDNESDAY, 22 JUNE 2011

Icebreaker Reception and Dinner
Newseum
6:30 p.m. – 9:00 p.m.

Since DC is the news capital of the world, our annual Icebreaker will take place in the Newseum, a “news museum” that expertly chronicles five centuries of news history and the media’s operations. We will be able to explore several levels of exhibit space, as well as the museum’s unbeatable terrace views of the U.S. Capitol and the National Mall.

The Newseum first opened in Arlington, VA, in 1997, and was relocated to its new home in downtown DC in 2008. Highlights of the building design include a 57 by 78 foot façade featuring a “window on the world,” which looks out on Pennsylvania Avenue and the National Mall while allowing the public see inside to the visitors and displays. It also features the First Amendment to the U.S. Constitution etched into a stone panel facing Pennsylvania Avenue.

The experience includes an extensive News History Gallery built around the Newseum’s impressive collection of more than 35,000 historic newspaper front pages; an expanded Interactive Newsroom; a state-of-the-art broadcast studio and control room with a smaller studio overlooking Pennsylvania Avenue; and familiar icons from the original Newseum—Pulitzer Prize-winning photojournalism, a journalists memorial dedicated to more than 1,600 journalists who died while reporting the news, and segments of the Berlin Wall.

Celebrate with the ultimate western party—break out your fancy pants and other flashy duds. This is the party where you wear anything and everything western—it’s Neiman Marcus meets Garth Brooks! For the gals: denim jeans, skirts, dresses, and jackets with as much white gem jewelry as possible. For the guys: dark or denim jeans, dark jacket with big blinged out belt buckles to show off the “diamond” aspect. Country flair can be added with hats and bandanas.
